DETROIT, 11; NEW YORK (A. L.), 6. What batting the New York Americans did yesterday was mostly late in the game and after the Detroits had taken a long lead. The Detroits acted on the war maxim of getting there first with the most men. By so doing they won the battle and won it The Detroits have always made lots of trouble for the New Yorks. Superior teams often have some rival that stings them sorely in spite of the fact that the former excels as a club. The Detroits were being toppled over regularly as the sun shone up to yesterday, but they came here with che-ts out and stepping high, just as if they were pennant winners, and swarmed all over Yesterday's game was long and loose also dull. It was too windy and chilly for a snappy game, and besides the New Yorks could not solve Killian's left handed pitching early enough to profit. Killian looks like Josse Burkett and has a wind-up delivery. His arm uncoiled like a spring and he snapped the ball in with considerable speed. Neither Hughes nor Wolfe was in good form for New York, and their support was below par. McGuire threw to bases fast and accurately and at the other end of his throws was Elberfeld, whose dexterity in putting the ball on the runner was notable. McGuire's batting and his and Elberfeld's cooperative conquering of base runners were oases in an otherwise commonplace game by the locals. Big Greminger played a fine fielding game for Detroit, and there was some long free hitting by the Tigers.

Crawford hammered out a three-bagger n the first inning and drove in a run for Detroit, but the lead was quickly obliterated by the New Yorks. Bases on balls to Keeler and Elberfeld, Fultz's sacrifice and Wil-liams's out put men on second and third bases, and Anderson brought them in with a whistling hit to left.

Barrett is a fast man, and when he grounded to Elberfeld in the third inning, the latter had to work fast to get his man. He made s outs and Crawford's liner, which Ganzel knocked down, scored Barrett. The Detroits bunched four sharp, solid welts on Hughes in the fifth inning, two doubles and two singles—"base hits unassisted," as one rooter described them.

Wolfe went in to pitch in the sixth and did all right for one inning, but was almost deafered by the ring of the Wood in the seventh. Carr was hit on the hand, Crawford singled, Greminger tripled, Lowe put a Texas Leaguer in right, and old Bob Wood topped off the tempest with a home run to centre. Elberfeld made a beautiful throw to the plate trying to head off Wood, but too late, according to the umpire.

In their half of the seventh the New Yorks tried hard to make up for their procrastination in hitting. Conroy, McGuire, Keeler and Williams attacked the Killian curves for four hits and three runs. Fultz, Elberfeld and Williams singled in succession in the ninth, one run resulting.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. New Yorks Come to Grief at the Hands

The New York Nationals came to grief in Pittsburg yesterday and with Mathewson, hitherto an unsolved riddle for the Pirates, in the box. Boston took Cincinnati's measure. so that the New Yorks lost little ground, and Brooklyn was beaten by Chicago. As the Chicagos are creeping up, their series with New York the last of this week will be very important. Rain prevented a game in St. Louis. The results:

PITTSBURG, 6; NEW YORK (N. L.), 5. PITTSBURG, May 16.—For the first time in two seasons Pittsburg to-day beat Mathew-son, pitching for New York, and that only after one of the greatest batting rallies seen here in years. After New York had scored five runs in the fifth inning on one single and three errors by Leach and one by Wagner, to say nothing of the two bases on balls and a hit batsman by Leever, the big right-hander refused to allow Clarke to relieve him with Camnitz. That inning, aided by a balk by Mathewson, against which he protested most vigorously, and hits by Phelps and Leever, Pittsburg scored one run. The next inning, Mathewson was almost knocked off the rubber, Pittsburg scoring five more the rubber, Pittsburg scoring five more runs.

New York scored her only five in the fifth, McCormick, first up, got a base on balls. Bresnahan hit safe and Gilbert sacrificed, being safe on Leach's fumble. Warner tried to sacrifice, but Leach's second fumble allowed McCormick to score. Mathewson fouled out. Wagner's error on Browne's hit allowed Bresnahan to score. Devlin fiew to Clarke and Gilbert scored. McGann was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. Mertes hit and Leach fumbled again, letting Warner score. Leever gave McCormick his second base on balls and Browne was forced over. Bresnahan struck out.

base on balls and Browne was forced over. Bresnahan struck out.

In Pittsburg's half of the fifth, with two out, Phelps singled and a balk was called on Matty, which sent Phelps to second. Leever singled and Phelps scored. The next inning saw the end. Clarke singled, Leach drew a base on balls. Wagner singled, Leach drew a base on balls wagnersingled, scoring Clarke, Sebring struck out. Cilibert's fumble of Bransfield's hit let Leach score. Ritchey doubled, scoring Wagner and Bransfield, and Phelps's single scored Ritchey. Leever singled again, but nothing came of it, as he was doubled a moment later on Beaumont's hit to short. CHICAGO, May 18,—Chicago barely escaped defeat by Brooklyn to-day in a poorly played game. Weimer was not hit to any extent, but was very wild and alternated strike outs with bases on balls. In the ninth inning Evers fumbled Babb's grounder, McCormick got a base on balls, Bergen flew to Evers, and Ritter, batring for Jones, hit safe; Strang got a pass, forcing in Babb, and Sheckard grounded out to Chance, scoring McCormick If was up to Lumley, and he stood like a log while three strikes were sailed over the rubber. a chance at the weights.
In the fourth event, for maidens, James R.

Keene's Toboggan, who ran second to Irish Lad in the Metropolitan Handicap, and M.

Corbett's Out of Reach may monopolize the betting. Monadnock, Schonarie, Gay Lotha-with Hoodwink, Stuyve, Ella Snyder, Namto and Stolen Moments figuring the best in the fifth. The maiden two-year-old race is a puzzle. The entries are as follows:

HURST PARK AGAIN TRIUMPHS TO-DAY'S CARD AT MORRIS PARK

WINS THE CLAREMONT HANDI-CAP WITH 130 POUNDS UP.

Odom Drives Him Home a Head Before Lux Casta and Then Rides Oarsman to Victory in Another Hot Finish -Rapid Water and Runnels Win.

Hurst Park, the four-year-old son of Kings-ton-Editha, won his third consecutive race yesterday when he captured the Claremont Handicap, at six and a half furlongs, Withers course, by a head. More than 10,000 racewho had assembled at Morris Park cheered the horse as George Odom drove him home in gallant style. Hurst Park picked up 130 pounds, the heaviest impost that he has yet been asked to carry, and, though he was apparently beaten 100 vards rom the wire, he sprinted gamely under he whip and got up in time to take the measure half a point, closing equal favorite with C. F. Hill's Gay Boy, who was in receipt of five pounds from the Kingston colt. Lux Casta Castalian was lowered to threes. Frank J. Farrell's King Pepper, an added starter, raced out in front with Castalian, followed by Lux Casta and Hurst Park, to the head of the stretch. There it was that Lux Casta was rushed into the lead by Burns and began to look invincible. But Odom went to the outside with Hurst Park, while Lyne clung to the rail with Gay Boy. It was a hot duel between Odom and Burns, but the former got there and received an ovation. Lux Casta was six lengths before Gay Boy, who beat King Pepper a head.

Again, in the overnight handicap at a mile and an eighth, run over the hill, Odom showed his remarkable finishing qualities. He had the mount on Oarsman, the favorite, who received four pounds from the top weight, Major Daingerfield, the latter going back in the betting to 5 to 2 from 8 to 5. J. E. Madden's City Bank, with 100 pounds on his back, was cut loose by the "Wizard," and was heavily backed to show. Oarsman, Colonsay and City Bank raced neck and neck in front, with Ostrich and Major Daingerfield trailing, to the head of the long run home. Martin moved up on the rail with the Major, but Oarsman and City Bank, who had swung wide, were fighting it out like a team hitched to a wagon all the way down to the wire, Both Odom and Hildebrand were using their whips freely in the last furlong, Oarsman finally getting the verdict by a nose in 1:55%, City Bank beating Daingerfield for the place by a length and a half. The latter was only head in front of Ostrich.

John A. Drake won two races, the first and the fifth, in hollow style. In the first, at six and a half furlongs, Withers course, Mr. Drake's Rapid Water and South Trimble were coupled favorites at even money, with John E. Madden's Robin Hood, second choice. Rapid Water made all the pace, winning easily by a length in 1:23%. Robin Hood nipped the place from South Trimble by In the fifth, at a mile, Mr. Drake's was returned an easy winner by a length and half in the slow time of 1:42%. Odom took Red Knight to the front at a great clip, but Runnels collared him on the turn. Then Odom put up another hot finish and landed Red Knight in the place, a head in front of the only other starter, Florham Queen.

Newton Bennington's Blandy, another prohibitive favorite, won the second event, or two-year-olds at four and a half furlongs, Eclipse course, by two lengths. Lucien Lyne rode the Hastings colt in perfect style Britisher, 8 to 1, beating W. C. Daly's Amberjack, 10 to 1, by a nose in the last jump. Madden's other entry. Hot Shot, was a length and a half back. The time was 0:54%.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

DAVID HOLLAND TALKS OF RU-MORED SALE OF AQUEDUCT.

Says He Has No Disagreement With August Belmont-Golden Maxim Out of Big Handicaps More Honors for Odom-Blandy Unbacked by Owner.

In view of the circulated rumor concerning he sale of the Aqueduct track, David Holland, president of the Queens County Jockey Club, says that he knows nothing of the con-templated deal and further states that he saw August Belmont several days ago, prac-tically nothing being grid about the purtically nothing being said about the purchase of his holdings. President Holland declares that the present rumors may have originated from the fact that the heirs of the late Thomas Reilly, who are women, have been reported as not being anxious to retain the racetrack stock, but that he has not been able to find out whether their willingness to sell actually exists.

"All of these holdings," said President
Holland yesterday, "would exceed my interest in the track, but I would be willing to sell, too, if a proper price could be secured I value my stock at $500,000, as Aqueduct has increased in value lately, especially in view of the extension of the new trolley lines to its gates. It may be possible that Mr. Belmont is anxious to secure a controlling interest by purchasing the shares of the Reilly heirs, but he has said nothing to me about it, and, furthermore, I would like to say that I have no disagreement with him. Joseph Reilly, secretary of the Queens County Jockey Club, who was at Morris Park yesterday said there was absolutely nothing in the story and that the Aqueduct track would remain intact. It has been said that if Aqueduct could be bought out the track would be closed to make room for Belmont Park and future racing at Westchester in the Jockey Club's chedule of dates.

Golden Maxim, the four-year-old Golden Garter-Miss Maxim colt, has gone wrong, and his owner has declared him out of all the big handicaps. This colt has had an exceedingly unlucky career on the turf. At one time last year he was regarded as one of the best three-year-olds in training. He ran second to Africander in the Lawrence Realization, but was beaten in the Brooklyn Derby because of poor judgment Brooklyn Derby because of poor Jugment on the part of Jockey Cochran. After a race at Brighton last summer he went lame, just at a time when it was reported that E. R. Thomas was willing to pay $25,000 for him. Early this year Golden Maxim was said to be sound, and once again the report was in circulation that Mr. Thomas wanted to add him to his big stable. But the colt has developed his old trouble in recent work and may never race again.

Odom is enjoying unstituted popularity these days. Following up his magnificent horsemanship on Delhi and Africander on Saturday, Odom was again the lion of the hour when he came home yesterday with Hurst Park and Oarsman. No jockey in the country can put up a stronger finish than this young man, who has been tried many times and seldom found wanting.
It seems a pity that the present scale of weights makes it impossible for him to ride more than he does. In the fifth race he could not get under 113 pounds, Red Knight taking up pound overweight.

Newton Bennington did not bet a penn on his colt Blandy yesterday, which created much surprise when the fact became known. Mr. Bennington is one of the heaviest plungers at the track, and it was generally supposed that the Hastings colt carried one of his owner's characteristic commissions.
"I did not bet on Blandy," said Mr. Ben. nington, "because there were several other orses in the race of whose form I knew horses in the race of whose loth rather nothing. In times past, under similar circumstances, I have bet heavily and have lost. But there'll be times later on when I will win some good wagers with Blandy, riding in the East, carried on the moors on his first appearance, winning two races and finishing second in another.

First Race—Four and a half furiongs—Itaska, 105 (Wedderstrand), 4 to 1, won; Rossessa, 100 (A. W. Booker), 5 to 1, second; Wood Claim, 98 (Richtsteiger), 12 to 1, third. Time, 0:5614. Josle, Judge Saufiey, Dazlo, Rusador, Sly Musette, Loyal Street, Green Gown, Eckatein and Mrs. Bob also ram.

The pot was boiling in the Madden camp yesterday, and if City Bank had won the last race instead of being beaten a head by Oarsman, "The Wizard" and his friends would have made things hum in the betting ring. have made usings sum in the betting ring.

As it was they cleaned up with a bundle placed on City Bank to show. The combination is said to have begun operations by playing Robin Hood a place in the first race, getting there by a small margin. Then the stable entry Britisher and Hot Shot vaccined. stable entry, Britisher and Hot Shot, received backing in the second event, both colts showing a marked improvement over their pre-vious races, the former getting the place at good odds. City Bank's wind-up was enough to convince the wiseacres that Madden s rapidly getting into his accustomed stride.

W. Hennessy, who rode Totness so cleverly in the third race, is one of the smallest boys that are wearing silk jackets in the East. He weighs 95 pounds and was in the employ of Casar Young in California for five years. The boy appeared at Young's stable one day when he could not have been more than

"I want to be a jockey," said the midget.
"How old are you?" asked the former English athlete, who is now one of the biggest bookmakers at Westchester. "Well, get on this horse," said Young, "and see what you can do." Hennessy climbed into the saddle, dug his heels into the racer's ribs and away they went at top speed. Hennessy, crouched over the horse's withers, let him go a mile and then pulled him up like a veteran. "What are you trying to do?" queried C.esar, in open mouthed astonishment.

"Just wanted to see how he could run, that's all," answered the boy, who was enfor a day by Starter Fitzgerald yesterday for disobedience at the post.

John A. Drake had large wagers on his two winners, Rapid Water and Runnels, yes-terday. As Rapid Water and South Trimble were coupled in the straight and place beting only, there was as much as 2 to 1 against South Trimble to show, while Rapid Water was at 1 to 3. Hippocrates and Graziallo were both backed in the first race, the former running in a disappointing manner to his new owner, John E. McDonald. Frank J. Farrell added King Pepper to the Claremont Handicap, but did not bet on him was in light with 107 pounds he was contented to wager the entrance fee against the purse Gay Boy just did beat King Pepper for third mopey in the last jump.

Buckle was quoted at 500 to 1, while 30 to 1 is the price against Claude. H. B. Duryea's Bulwark, who ruled second choice in the second event, was so green that he caused all kinds of trouble in going to the post. He did not seem to know what was wanted of him, and was badly beaten. Andrew Miller's Stimulant, by Faverdale-Strychinia, hence a half brother to Highball, was second to the last furlong pole, but stopped, and appeared to be short of work. One of the heavy speculators while walk-ing in the paddock before the third race had three good things handed to him. M. L. Hayman told him that Totness, 20 to 1, would win. O. L. Richards informed him that Dark Planet, 15 to 1, would be second, if not better, while a friend handed him Toi San, 12 to 1, as a good show bet.
